So

Can you guys please wait on the next three ask or dares before commenting another ask or dare? Thank you.

As a reward, you get air. :)

Sorry

Sorry I haven't been posting on this book. I have just suddenly lost motivation for some reason. Also I actually only have to post 2 more ask until you can start asking again. I'ma update soon.

The end of this

I've lost too much motivation. But i'll probably make a remake in the future. I feel a lot of pressure making this book. This is in no way your fault guys. The other books will still be going, but they won't be updated as quickly as they use to be. This was my favorite book too.
